

ELiEs Peer Review Form

We thank you for your collaboration with our journal Estudios de Lingüística del Español in the blind peer review process. Please note that, as these are working papers, manuscripts may be early-stage studies. However, an external evaluation is necessary to assess whether the manuscripts meet the standards of scientific quality, consistency and accuracy.

We would appreciate your review, which should contain a brief evaluation and one of the following four recommendations on your part: (1) accepted for publication without further revisions, (2) accepted for publication with minor revisions, (3) to be revised and resubmitted, or (4) rejected.
